

CALL FOR PROPOSALS

Language Teaching and Learning Today (LTLT) is an international conference, aiming at exploring crucial issues of teaching and learning English language for the sustainable development of the community in the 21st century. The conference is annually organised by Faculty of Foreign Languages, Ho Chi Minh City University of Technology and Education. This year, LTLT 2018 includes a keynote speech, four featured talks, and several presentations on diversity and unity of language education in the globalised landscape. Invited speakers of the conference are Prof. Dr. Stefanie Pillai, Dr. Hery Santosa, Dr. Loan Nguyen, Dr. Quyen Bui, and Dr. Nhung Le.

LTLT 2018 is calling for proposals of three kinds, namely Research Paper, Workshop, and Poster Presentation. Each proposal can consider particular issues relevant to any of the sub-themes as listed below.

1. Language development and learning opportunities
2. Learning attitudes, identity, and behaviors
3. Learning motivation and preferences
4. Learner autonomy in virtual learning space
5. Language, culture, and economy
6. Material presentation and development
7. Assessment and learning achievement
8. Teaching practices in the blended learning mode
9. English medium instructions
10. Technology enhanced language teaching and learning
11. Content and language integrated learning
12. Professional development practices for language teachers

All proposals must be written in English language and should be submitted through Registration on the conference website at <http://tinyurl.com/ltl2018> from February 1st 2018 to April 15th 2018. All relevant instructions are provided to you once you register as a Presenter in the registration process. If you need these guidelines in advance for the preparation of your proposals, please be advised of the following details.

Proposal Type	This indicates the nature of the proposal, which should be Research Paper, Workshop, or Poster Presentation. Each Research Paper or Workshop must be delivered within 45 minutes, including the Q and A section with the audience. Poster Presentation must be prepared in A1 or A0 paper size.
Title	Each title should not be longer than 15 words for the sake of formatting. Titles of more than 15 words can be placed in the body of the abstract.
Abstract	Each abstract should be between 200 and 500 words and must be placed directly into the abstract box. File attachment is not allowed.
Keywords	Up to 6 keywords are advised to indicate the key concepts included in each proposal. Acronyms are possible.
Biography	Biographies are required for both main authors and co-authors. Each biography should be between 150 and 250 words and must be placed directly into the biography box. File attachment is not allowed.
Full-text Paper	This section only comes up if your proposal is a Research Paper. The full-text version of the paper needs to be prepared in a word document, either in .doc or .docx, and submitted by April 20th 2018. Each paper must be between 2500 and 7000 words long, excluding the references and appendices. All papers must strictly follow the guidelines of APA 6th.

After submitting a proposal, the authors should expect to receive a confirmation of the submission within 3 working days via email. Authors are advised to check the spam mail folder of their mailboxes or send us an email to ltlt@hcmute.edu.vn if they do not receive any confirmation from us. All abstracts will be reviewed, and authors will be notified of acceptance by the deadline. All accepted proposal abstracts and their authors' biographies will be published in the conference booklet. All full-text papers accepted by the conference and their authors' biographies will be published in the conference proceedings with an ISBN.
